COMPONENT 1 · READING EXISTING PRODUCTS

What did the process actually give me?
Not what I set out to find.

1 THE STANZA

Write one paragraph, not a list, about what you actually learned. Not what you set out to find. What the process gave you that you did not already have when you started.

2 REDACTION

Read your stanza back slowly.
Underline anything that might come from your own familiarity, frustration or background rather than the evidence. What is left un-underlined is the part you can stand behind.

What's left that I can stand behind:

3 STILL UNKNOWN

Name one specific thing you went looking for and couldn't confirm. Not "there's a lot more to understand". The actual gap you hit.

I went looking for _____ and couldn't confirm it because _____
